2022 INFINITI Q50 powers up with NEW Sport Black edition and standard wireless Apple CarPlay®

Dubai, UAE — The 2022 INFINITI Q50 sedan adds newfound smarts next year to its strong exterior style and tailored interior, including a SPORT Black Edition grade specific to the Middle East market. Every INFINITI Q50 now includes wireless Apple CarPlay® compatibility for 2022.

The 2022 INFINITI Q50 sedan continues its award-winning formula by combining a lean, athletic stance with a crafted, connected, and comfortable interior. The sedan is available in four well-equipped grades: LUXE, SENSORY, SPORT Black Edition and RED SPORT.

Dual, high-definition displays feature smartphone compatibility software and INFINITI InTouch™ Services. Sound travels through an available Bose® Performance Series 16-speaker audio system with Bose® Centerpoint simulated surround that delivers a rich, balanced, and nuanced sound throughout the cabin. USB-based Android Auto™ compatibility is supported by two standard USB ports in the front (one Type-A, one Type-C), and wireless Apple CarPlay® is newly standard on all grades.

2022 Q50 sedan receive leather-appointed seating surfaces inside, with available Graphite, and Stone Grey colour treatments, as well as semi-aniline leather-appointed seats, brilliantly finished in Gallery White or Graphite, both with Red stitching for the RED SPORT grade. The interior features INFINITI's hallmark zero-gravity spinal support seats that were carefully engineered to provide a consistent level of support and minimize pressure on lower and upper back muscles, in a spacious cabin with ample front and rear headroom, generous rear knee room enhanced by the thin front seatback design, and multi-adjustable front seats.

The 2022 INFINITI Q50 LUXE includes wireless Apple CarPlay® compatibility, leather-appointed seats, 18-inch aluminium-alloy wheels, and more. The SENSORY grade ladders up with integrated navigation, ambient lighting, adaptive front lighting system and Bose® Performance Series Audio system. Replacing the SPORT grade, the SPORT Black Edition features dark chrome and black accents including the front grill, door mirror caps, rear tailgate strip, 19-inch aluminium-alloy wheels and interior elements.

At the top of the performance ladder, the 2022 Q50 RED SPORT 400 includes unique black and dark exterior accents and (19"-inch wheels) , aluminium pedals, uprated V6 engine performance with 400 horsepower, semi-aniline leather-appointed surfaces, Dynamic Digital Suspension, which constantly adjusts the shock absorber valves within a wide range of damping force to control body motion when cornering.

Every 2022 INFINITI Q50 sedan is powered by a dynamic 3.0-liter twin-turbo V-6 paired to an advanced 7-speed automatic transmission with manual shift mode and Downshift Rev Matching, combining excellent drivability with efficiency and performance.

The sedan offers a wide range of safety features including predictive forward collision warning and direct adaptive steering, Backup collision Intervention and Around View® monitor, in addition to INFINITI's trusted intelligent brake assist, lane departure warning and prevention, blind spot warning and intervention and more.

The 2022 INFINITI Q50 is set to arrive in dealerships across the Middle East in late 2021.
